THE LIFE OF BAYARD RUSTIN

avenues of activism

This Missouri History Museum series offers avenues of activism in the St. Louis area. Topics such as community engagement and active citizenship are examined from different perspectives.

Lee

(following Q&A session)

A Call to Conscience performs Out from the Shadows: A Tribute to Bayard Taylor Rustin, a seven-minute presentation based on speeches and letters spoken and written by Rustin.

During his 60-year career, Bayard Rustin formulated many of the strategies that propelled the American civil rights movement, including the March on Washington in 1963. But his open homosexuality forced him to remain in the background, marking him as a “brother outsider.” Q&A with Walter Naegle, partner and executor of the Bayard Rustin estate, and St. Louis-area activist Joan Lipkin follows the screening.
