

GRIDIRON GIRLS

SCREENING AND DISCUSSION

Thursday MAY 30
7pm
Lee Auditorium

FREE

A look at the struggles of one all-female full contact football team. The women that comprise the team represent all walks of life, but one thing all the women on the Orlando Anarchy have in common: at one point in their life they were told they can't play. Now they fight on and off the field to make their way in a sport dominated by a male culture. What they find is what everyone looks for in the game of football: heart, determination, and an indomitable spirit that goes beyond the field. A discussion with staff and alumni from the St. Louis SLAM follows the film. (Running time: 96 min.)

Opens May 25!
