DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were donated to the Missouri Historical Society by Mrs. Edward Field Goltra in 1959.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Edward Field Goltra was born December 29, 1862, in Jacksonville, Illinois. He graduated from Princeton University in 1887 and married Kate Brown the following year. They moved to St. Louis soon thereafter. Edward F. Goltra's business career included stints as president of the American Steel Foundry Company, the Sligo Furnace Company, the Missouri Iron Company, and the Mississippi Valley Iron Company. He also operated the Goltra Barge Line. He served as Democratic national committeeman from 1910 to 1924, and was involved in St. Louis civic affairs including the Municipal Commission on Tuberculosis of St. Louis and the St. Louis Society for the Relief and Prevention of Tuberculosis. He and his wife had two children: Edward Field Goltra Jr. and William Brown Goltra. They lived in St. Louis at 4416 Lindell Blvd. and later 4487 Lindell Blvd. Edward F. Goltra died April 2, 1939, in St. Louis.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection includes personal and family correspondence of Edward F. Goltra; papers relating to the various companies he ran; papers relating to his work as a Democratic national committeeman; and papers relating to his civic interests.

In the descriptions of the folder contents in this finding aid, the phrase "Correspondents include" indicates that the folder includes correspondence from or to the individuals listed.
