

Missouri History Museum

Annual Summer Teacher Institute

ST. LOUIS: FIRST IN CIVIL RIGHTS

SAVE THE DATE

JULY 16–20, 2018

FACILITATORS:

SARAH SIMS, Missouri History Museum
Manager of K–12 Education Programs

KEONA ERVIN, University of Missouri–Columbia
Assistant Professor of History Affiliate faculty of Black Studies, Peace Studies, and Women's and Gender Studies

Author of Gateway to Equality: Black Women and the Struggle for Economic Justice in St. Louis

More information and application details will be coming soon to mohistory.org/educators

Top: The 1917 Silent Parade in Harlem held in protest of the East St. Louis riots.
Library of Congress Prints & Photographs Division.

Bottom: L. S. Curtis asking admittance for his sons to the Fairground Park swimming pool from superintendent Louis Fierer after they were denied entrance because of race, June 1950. Missouri History Museum.

5700 Lindell Blvd. | Forest Park
314.746.4599 | mohistory.org